

SpaceTech 2010 – Event Programme

10th March 2010

Time	Programme Item	Speaker
10:00 – 10:30	Registration and Coffee
10:30 – 10:50	Welcome	Prof Keith Mason, CEO STFC
10:50 – 11:50	Session I: Plenary session (Chair: Prof Keith Mason)  Introduction to SpaceTech 2010 and the ESA Technology Transfer Network  UK Space impact through Technology Transfer  Space science and technology at the Rutherford Appleton Laboratory  "Turning Technology into Business": The ESA Technology Transfer Programme Office and its Business Incubation Centres	Chris Bee, STFC Innovations Ltd  David Williams, Director General BNSC  Prof Richard Holdaway, Director STFC Space Science & Technology  Niels Eldering, Manager ESA Business Incubator ESTEC
Session II – Technology Solutions Chair: Kim Ward Head of Space Engineering and Technology, RAL		Session III – Technology Challenges Chair: Catherine Ewart Head of STFC Futures Programme
12:00 – 12:40	Exploiting spacecraft guidance and control technology  Technology transfer at Leicester SRC	David Dungate, Tessella  Prof George Fraser, University of Leicester	The military user overview  Dr Jack Lemmon, Ministry of Defence
12:40 – 14:00	Lunch, Networking and Exhibitors
14:00 – 14:40	Intelligent portering system  Terahertz components	Chris Lee, SciSys  Dr Byron Alderman, STFC Rutherford Appleton Laboratory	Addressing the Challenge of Leakage in the Water Industry  Darrell Griffith Innovation Delivery Team, Yorkshire water
14:40 – 15:20	Tea &amp; Coffee, Networking and Exhibitors
15:20 – 16:00	QinetiQ Space Technology  Astronomy to Bio-imaging	Rob Scott, BD Manager QinetiQ  Prof Alan Greenaway, Heriot - Watt University	Healthcare challenges- NHS innovation hubs  Dr Richard Deed, NHS TrusTECH
16:00 – 16:30	Networking + Close		