

The Hot Spot at Jodrell Bank

Dr Tim O'Brien
Head of Outreach
Jodrell Bank Centre for Astrophysics
University of Manchester

The Hot Spot: STFC Large Award

- £100k awarded March 2007 for a 3-yr project to provide:
 - A new space for innovative public engagement
 - Summer events programme reaching out to new audiences
 - Begin audience building & programme development for new Centre for Visitors

The Hot Spot Pavilion

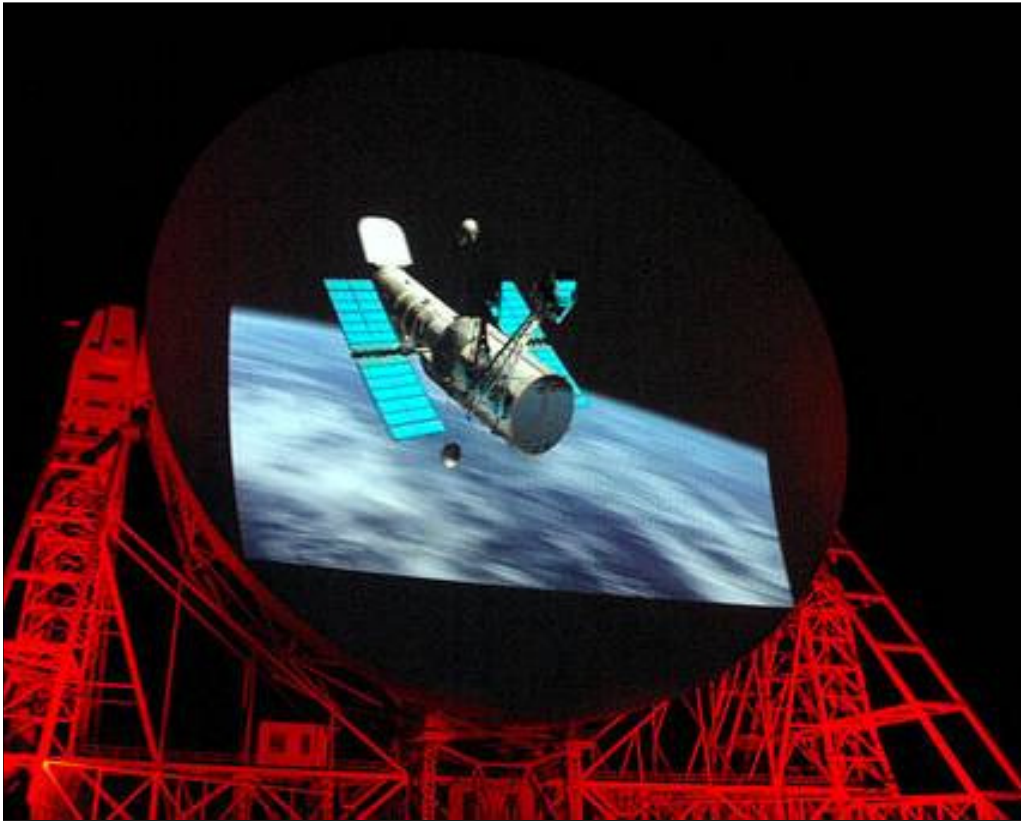

- Marquee provides flexible space for workshops and public events
- Audience :
 - general public
 - schools (9-18)
 - teachers on PGCE courses

Innovative Events Programme

- First Move - Literature festival
- First Light – Performance of a new musical composition
- First Flight – Space 50: The world’s largest cinema screen
- 2008/9 tbd : Lit Fest 2.0, The Green Planet, Archaeo-astronomy, Planck, IYA

Building Partnerships

- Local education groups
- University PGCE courses
- Other funders (RA Eng, Arts Council, Regional Development Agency, Tourism Board, Industry)
- National and local media

Conclusion

- Experience science in action and provide the ‘spark’ of inspiration

“Moonbounce” – BBC TV